

The St. Luke's Methodist Foundation has endowed scholarships created for the benefit of St. Luke's members, the children of members and community applicants. The Board of Directors is proud to announce the recipients of the 2022 scholarships, along with their schools and fields of study:

Claude Byiringiro, University of Houston Victoria, Undeclared studies

Antoni Diaz, Southwestern University, Business

Tomaz Diaz, St. Edward's University, Theater Management

Francois Elize, Keystone College, Computer Science

Patrick Kisindja, University of Houston Downtown, Computer Science

Connor Kissack, Texas A&M University, Engineering

Tilisa Mlondani, Prairie View A&M, Nursing

Henry Quillin, The University of Texas at Austin, Computer Science/Business

Seydou Traore, University of Houston, Petroleum Engineering

Three students pursuing Christian vocations were also awarded scholarships:

Samuel Montano, Houston Baptist University, Biblical Studies

Kristin Steed, Perkins School of Theology/SMU, Master of Divinity

Noah Vaughn, Duke Divinity School, Master of Divinity